About me

Just recently, I've taken the time to truly reflect on my actions, the company I keep, and the impact I want to make. This introspection has empowered me to choose a path that resonates with the kind of world I aspire to be a part of.

Interests

I've taken the time to truly reflect on my actions, the company I keep, and the impact I want to make. When it comes to unwinding and relieving stress, you can often find me on the basketball court.

Skills

Full Stack Developer

Hey there! I'm always bubbling with fresh ideas, eager to dive into projects that let me explore new tools and techniques. My ultimate aim? To be part of a dynamic team, tackling complex, impactful projects that enhance the way we live and connect on this amazing planet.

Job experience

 Hausmeister 2020-Present
 PSV-Treptow, Berlin, Germany

After relocating to Germany, I was fortunate to secure a position as a Facility Manager. This role provided me with the flexibility to delve into programming during my off hours. I take pleasure in tackling challenges and consider thoughtful deliberation an integral part of my approach. What truly resonates with me is the ability to make a positive impact by mending and improving existing systems, rather than opting for replacements.

 Volunteer 2016-2018
Workaway.info Europe

I embarked on a journey to enhance my English proficiency by traversing Europe and dedicating over a year to volunteering in various countries. This incredible experience not only allowed me to connect on a deeper level with individuals from diverse cultures but also taught me the invaluable skill of collaborative teamwork.

 Salesman and Designer 2014-2016
Español + Diseño y vanguardia. Querétaro, México

I elevated the caliber of client presentations, mastering the art of juggling multiple projects while maintaining impeccable organization from initial contact through post-sale follow-up. Moreover, I played a pivotal role in enhancing the brand image and showroom through my bespoke designs. In addition to this, I took on the responsibility of training new designers and spearheading a dynamic design team.
